You're Gonna Need Me

Robert Cray

You told me that you loved me
And every word was true
You're actin' kind of funny lately
I wonder what's wrong with you

I'm gonna leave you
And you're crying won't make me stay
Well, the more you cry for me, little girl
The futher I'm going away

There won't be no need to callin' me
I won't answer the phone
I'll have someone to answer, baby
That your sweet lovin' daddy is gone

You're gonna need me
The day I say goodbye

Ohh, when the train leave the station
You'll have to hang your head and cry

Ohh, when that train leave the station
You'll have to hang your head and cry
