

10 Years

Robert DeLong

Every time I drink now I get drunk
Anything to get you out of my blood
Now every conversation I have wasted feels like wasted time

Another drink
A lil weed
Another tab
Is all I need
Anything to take the edge off
Seeing white
I'm going black
Some of this
Some of that
Because the feelings never let up

I know its time to start
Unwind my bitter heart
10 years with you my focus love
So why'd I go blow it up?

So why'd I go blow it up?

Can't remember names when I'm this loose
In our bed with her but seeing you
60 days since we have spoken
Now my breathing feels like choking on

Another drink
A lil weed
Another tab
Is all I need
Anything to take the edge off
Seeing white
I'm going black
Some of this
Some of that
Because the feelings never let up

I know its time to start
Unwind my bitter heart
10 years with you my focus love
So why'd I go blow it up?

A lil smoke, a lil drink
'Cause I don't want to have to think
About the decade or the send-off
Anything to take the edge off
I know its time to start
Unwind my bitter heart
10 years with you my focus Love
So why'd I go and blow it up?
Oh, oh, oh, oh blow it up
Oh, oh, oh, oh blow it up!

I know its time to start
Unwind my bitter heart
10 years with you my focus love

So why'd I go blow it up?

Oh, oh, oh, oh blow it up
Oh, oh, oh, oh blow it up!
Oh, oh, oh, oh blow it up
So why'd I go blow it-
