

Sellin' U Somethin

Robert DeLong

I got a new thing boiling in the kitchen for ya
You're gonna want it, yeah
You're gonna want it, yeah
I've got a new Palm stereo addiction for ya
You're gonna want it, yeah
You're gonna want it, yeah

I've been waiting for so so long
Been waiting so long
Been waiting so long
I've got a new friend, he's going on a mission for ya
You never wanted that
You're gonna like it, yeah

You bought numbers left and right
You bought your airline flight
You use the music you bought the rights
You bought all the words you sing
You're buying everything

[Chorus:]
I'm sellin' u somethin
No, it's not nothin
Look a little closer, baby
Everyone's sellin' u somethin
[x2]

I've got a clean slate west coast politician for ya
You're gonna like him, yeah
You're gonna like him, yeah
He's got a new way to publicize the issues for ya
He'll make you understand
You're gonna like it, yeah

You've been waiting for so so long
You've been waiting for so long
He's put a new surveillance legislation on ya
You never wanted that
But he got elected, yeah

You buy rifles to make a stand
But he has the upper hand
Divert your focus to marriage rights
But you're buying all he slings
You're buying everything

He's sellin' u somethin
No, I saw nothing
Look a little closer baby,
Everyone's sellin' u somethin
[x2]

You don't change your mind
Babe, in time the cash will run out
Buildings will fall and CEO's will make the calls
The future is grim and savage
You believe I'm right about it

Just remember this about it

[Chorus x6]
