

SWITCHBLADE

Robert DeLong

In my head, in my head, in my head
In my head, in my head, in my head

Got a gaze like Medusa, see right through ya
Turn a warm heart into stone
She's a fire Saint Lucia, she'll burn through ya
If you try to get too close

She's built to destroy
Every girl and every boy
Play the world like a toy
She'll just destroy

Switchblade under my bed
In my head, in my head, in my head
She'll turn gold into poison
Again and again and again
Her words cut like silence
Setting off the sirens
She's a blade under my bed
In my head, in my head, in my head

In my head, in my head, in my head
(In my head, in my head)
In my head, in my head, in my head
(In my head, in my head)

Showing up so intrusive, she's fucking ruthless
Don't care how fast you run
She's a god and I'm useless, I got bruises
And I'm counting every one

She's built to destroy
Every girl and every boy
Turn my heart to a void
She'll just destroy

Switchblade under my bed
In my head, in my head, in my head
She'll turn gold into poison
Again and again and again
Her words cut like silence
Setting off the sirens
She's a blade under my bed
In my head, in my head, in my head

In my head, in my head, in my head
(In my head, in my head)
Switchblade under my bed (In my head, in my head, in my head)
(In my head, in my head)

In my head, in my head, in my head
In my head, in my head, in my head
In my head, in my head, in my head
In my head, in my head, in my head
