

Thanks For Everything

Robert DeLong

After everything was over
You swam across the river
The apocalypse had come and gone
But you just got older

Saved by your iron cages
Saved by obsessive foresight
Saving yourself a life alone
Living in human twilight

You said I'm not gonna hang my head
Gonna do what I want instead
Cus everyone that came before
Got us here to make us what we are

Thanks for everything
Now I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time

You talked to city streetlights
And said there's no one left to go
Drinking after midnight
Saving yourself a life alone
Living in human twilight

You said I'm not gonna hang my head
Gonna do what I want instead
Cus everyone that came before
Got us here to make us what we are

Thanks for everything
Now I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
I'm gonna have a good time
