

Waves

Robert Earl Keen

You can hear the cars drive by
It's getting dark outside
Bet the tars not dry on the new road
Fiddle with the TV set
And haven't realized it yet
But I'd guess that you could bet
I'll be here alone

And it almost sounds like waves crashing
And it almost sounds like waves crashing

I don't really say a lot
And never gave it too much thought
How many times I bought what you're selling me
And plenty times I've come around
To something a lot like this sound
It's just that further down
I can hear the street

And it almost sounds like waves crashing
And it almost sounds like waves crashing
And it almost sounds like waves crashing
Yeah, it almost sounds like waves crashing
