

Make Me Feel Alright

Robert Finley

Yeah, yeah

I hope this woman that I'm callin'
Has got a bed that I can fall in
'Cause it's gonna be a cold
A cold and lonely night

The one I had just up and left me
So I gotta go and catch me
I gotta find somebody to make me feel alright

Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me, make me feel alright

Girl, I know I'm not the only
The only one that's feelin' lonely
So, you take my hand
And tell me I can hold you tight

I'm not askin' you to love me
Sure don't want you to judge me
And don't tell me your problems
And I sure won't tell you mine

Just make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Just make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
You can make me feel alright

Oh yeah
Come on, baby
Come on
Oh yeah

Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
You can make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Alright, feel alright (Make me feel alright)
You can make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Feel alright (Make me feel alright)
You can make me feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Feel alright (Make me feel alright)
Make me, make me feel alright

Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright
