Just bring me the sunshine with your smile
I'll be okay
No matter if the rain falls
When you call, I'll be okay
Just bring me the sunshine with your smile
I'll be okay
No matter if the rain falls
When you call, I'll be okay

Oh, it's gonna be alright, I know it's gonna be okay
It's gonna be alright, with you I know I'll be okay
It's gonna be alright, I know it's gonna be okay
It's gonna be alright, with you I know I'll be okay

Just bring me the sunshine (with light brings happiness)
With your smile (with you I'll do my best)
I'll be okay
No matter if the rain falls (no matter if the rain keeps fallin')
When you call (as long as I hear your voice then)
I'll be okay
Just bring me the sunshine (with light brings happiness)
With your smile (with you I'll do my best)
I'll be okay
No matter if the rain falls (no matter if the rain keeps fallin')
When you call (as long as I hear your voice then)
I'll be okay

It's gonna be alright, I know it's gonna be okay
It's gonna be alright, with you I know I'll be okay
It's gonna be alright, I know it's gonna be okay
It's gonna be alright, with you I know I'll be okay

I can be miles ahead, miles behind
I don't care long as I'm with you (oh, it's gonna be alright)
Can be miles ahead, miles behind
I don't care long as I'm with you
Can be miles ahead, miles behind
I don't care long as I'm with you
Can be miles ahead, miles behind
I don't care long as I'm with you (gonna be all... I'll be okay)
Can be miles ahead, miles behind
I don't care long as I'm with you (long as I have you)
Can be miles ahead, miles behind
I don't care long as I'm with you

Be alright, be okay
Be alright, oh

Okay
