It Don't Matter

Robert Glasper

I can walk a little further
Show you how to dance when it rains
You can be my compass
I just don't know how to love you the same

You don't love me, but you want me
A circle that won't change to a line
I love you and I want you
But it feels like we're out of time

I wish you knew what you wanted
Stop pushing me away
We could be a simple you and I
See you and I together

You're not mine, it don't matter
No more time, it don't matter
You and I, it don't matter
We need time, it don't matter

When I think it's getting better
Mmm, could you be mine?
I don't know about forever
Yesterday we were fine
But I love to see you in the morning
The light in your eyes
But the pain has got me fading
I can't find my shine, oh

You're not mine, it don't matter
No more time, it don't matter (We're running out of time)
You and I, it don't matter
We need time, it don't matter

You're not mine, it don't matter
No more time, it don't matter (But I want you to be)
You and I, it don't matter (I want you to be here with me)
We need time, it don't matter (Well I done a lot of thinking, what're we gon na do?)

There's gotta be a way to know, another way to go
Another kind of life where I don't hide

Even in a war no one my soul can need
Then I'm running back to you again

It don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, no
(It don't matter)
Don't matter, don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matte r, no
(It don't matter)
(It don't matter)

I don't wanna be afraid
You don't have to be afraid (It don't matter)
I don't wanna be afraid

You don't have to be afraid (It don't matter)
Love (It don't matter)
I wanna look at the bright morning sun in your eyes (It don't matter)
(It don't matter) And I wanna say
That I wanna see that everyday, everyday (It don't matter, it don't matter)
It don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, no
(It don't matter)
It don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, it don't matter, no...
