

Over

Robert Glasper

I was falling too soon
Separated by the afternoon
Yeah, dream that faded
I hate that we waited so many moons, so many moons

No, I don't wanna go back up
Standing in the static
Right there where you are Dancing in dramatics
And after all the hurt that happened
Baby, you know all to me that matters is your heart, is your heart

I'm hoping that this love ain't over
Oh, 'cause I'm tripping over you
Hoping that this love ain't over
Lying if I said it wasn't true
Hoping that this love ain't over

Contact high put me right into
The signs and the wonders of that elusive mood
And the more time you promised, the less you were honest in the things you do o
The things you do

Hoping that this love ain't over
Oh, 'cause I'm tripping over you
Hoping that this love ain't over
Lying if I said it wasn't true
Hoping that this love ain't over

We can't stand away
Times of olden wars we wage
And please, don't stay in the rain
Come back in and tell me you feel the same

I'm hoping that this love ain't over
Oh, 'cause I'm tripping over you
Hoping that this love ain't over
Lying if I said it wasn't true
Hoping that this love ain't over
I'm hoping that this love ain't over
Oh, 'cause I'm tripping over you
Hoping that this love ain't over
Lying if I said it wasn't true

We can't take the pain
Nobody will ever care
Even if ain't the same
Don't you let them speak on our name

More Polaroids, all damages, all new friends, you had no fear, don't forget about me too
Gone too soon
Gave way to my innocence, you were my home, I would rather keep you over the road, but all too soon
All, all, all too soon

Gave way to my innocence, corridors of the whole Polaroids
Wished that you would keep them images, still making peace with my innocence
, I know
