

Worries

Robert Glasper

Everything's not exactly how it seems
So many dealers out here selling dreams
But girl, now I'm here, holding nothing but truth
I won't disappear, girl I'mma be there for ya

So no worries, no worries cause I'm here
No worries, no worries cause I'm here
No worries, you should have no worries cause I'm here
No worries, no worries cause I'm here
No worries, no worries cause I'm here

All the girls say that all the good guys are gone
But I've been standing right here all along
Right under your nose, but you was looking for something else
Now you know for sure, that ain't nobody else the best

So no worries, no worries cause I'm here
No worries, no worries cause I'm here
No worries, you have no worries cause I'm here
No worries, no worries cause I'm here

Now you've got me, you've got what you need
You can just breathe cause now you're free
You've got me, who
So now you can breathe, yeah yeah

I thought I was in happily ever after Didn't have enough to keep her, only catch her
Now she's long gone, off to find somebody else
Now I'm all alone to figure it out by myself

Now I got worries
I got worries trying to save you
I got worries
I got problems now
I got worries, wanna save her
Now I got worries
I got worries trying to save you
I got worries
I got worries, wanna save her
I got worries
I got worries, wanna save her
I got worries
I got worries, wanna save her
I got worries
I got worries, wanna save her
I got worries
I got worries, wanna save her
I got worries
I got worries, wanna save her
