

You Own Me

Robert Glasper

Don't mind me, babe
I just want to look at you
'Cause I'm blown away
By everything that you do to me
Without even trying
Even though I'm falling
I feel like I'm flying 'way

Baby, if you didn't know it
Let me be the first to tell you; you own me
You own me
I said, baby, if you didn't know it
Let me be the first to tell you, you own me
You own me
Yeahhhh

'Cause everything that you do is amazing to me and I (I)
Could never replace you, baby, even if I tried (If I tried)
'Cause you got a hold on me and I just can't deny
What you do, not even if I wanted to (No)
'Cause—

Baby, if you didn't know it (Yeahh)
Let me be the first to tell you, you own me
You own me
I said, baby, if you didn't know it (Know it, baby)
Let me be the first to tell you, you own me
(Can't nobody love me like you do)
You own me
(That's why I love you)

Baby, if you didn't know it (Oh, baby!)
Let me be the first to tell you, you own me
You own me (Oooh, oh!)
I said, baby, if you didn't know it
Let me be the first to tell you (I gotta tell you, baby), you own me
(That I really love you, baby)
You own me

Baby, if you didn't know it
Let me be the first to tell you, you own me
(That you own me, baby!)
You own me (Yeah!)
I said, baby, if you didn't know it (Yes, you do)
Let me be the first to tell you, you own me
(Oh, yeah)
You own me
(Yeahhhhhhhh!)

You can have all of my love
Baby, it's waiting for you
Don't mind me, baby
I just wanna look — I just wanna look at you
Yeah, yeah
