

Be Your Friend

Robert Grace

She tells me to forget about it
Like it never happened
Before
She tells me that I think too much
I don't think she thinks at all
Because

You know
I don't want to be fooled again
It's not love if it's all pretend
I don't hate you
Well maybe I do

We could
Light it up, start again
But I don't wanna be your friend
Everything you put me through
This is not the end of me, just you
So move along, don't pretend
'Cause I don't wanna be your friend
Everything you put me through
This is not the end of me, just you

I tell her she's a mess
But I guess she doesn't understand
She cuts too deep when she sinks her teeth in
As hard as she can oh oh oh

You know
I don't want to be fooled again
It's not love if it's all pretend
I said I don't hate you
But really I do

We could
Light it up, start again
But I don't wanna be your friend
Everything you put me through
This is not the end of me, just you
So move along, don't pretend
'Cause I don't wanna be your friend
Everything you put me through
This is not the end of me, just you

Don't look at me like that
Don't try, you'll get nowhere
Don't look at me like that
Don't try and make me care (I got strength and I know it)
Don't look at me like that (Yeah I might have fallen down but tonight I'm gonna show it)
Don't try, you'll get nowhere (I got strength and I know it)
Don't look at me like that (I gotta get back up 'cause tonight I'm gonna show it)
Don't try and make me care

I don't want to be fooled again
It's not love if it's all pretend

I said I don't hate you
But really I do

So we could
Light it up, start again
But I don't wanna be your friend
Everything you put me through
This is not the end of me, just you
So move along, don't pretend
'Cause I don't wanna be your friend
Everything you put me through
This is not the end of me, just you

This is not the end of me, just you
