

I'm Done

Robert Grace

I don't wanna die, I just never wanna wake up
Men don't cry, so I hide behind this makeup
Say everything's alright when
The truth is buried inside, yeah
I wanna let go, yeah, I wanna move on
But the pain just grows, happiness an illusion
Say everything is great
With the fakest smile hangin' out of my face, I'm done

Done, d-done, done, done, done
Done, d-done, done, done, done
Done, d-done, done, done
I, I, I, I'm done

What a day to be alive
Start it off right with a white lie
Make 'em believe it
Don't tell them your secrets
'Cause they won't be there for you next time
It's not unusual
To feel like you're hangin' on to nothin' or no one
Oh, it's hard, broken heart, need a new one

I don't wanna die, I just never wanna wake up
Men don't cry, so I hide behind this makeup
Say everything's alright when
The truth is buried inside, yeah
I wanna let go, yeah, I wanna move on
But the pain just grows, happiness an illusion
Say everything is great
With the fakest smile hangin' out of my face, I'm done

Done, d-done, done, done, done
Done, d-done, done, done, done
Done, d-done, done, done
I, I, I, I'm done

Billion different reasons I should stick around, I'm a sinkin' ship
But you know I'm never goin' down, I'ma stick it out
Even though I don't know how
I'ma act like I can do it, even when I'm freakin' out
And I'm always freakin' out about something 'cause I don't like where I'm goin'
I got this feelin', can't shake it, not really fine, so I fake it
I've got this sick in my stomach, 'cause I can't fix what I've done
I can see your lips movin' but I don't hear anyone

'Cause I'm done
Done, d-done, done, done, done (Oh-woah)
Done, d-done, done, done, done (Oh-woah)
Done, d-done, done, done
I, I, I, I'm done
