

Nice Guys Finish Last

Robert Grace

You say that I'm way too quiet
I guess I'm just shy
You want me to start a riot
But I'm a nice guy
There's no way to really hide it
I guess it's not what you want
But it's all that I got

You said you don't want me
You're better off with somebody
Who gets jealous
Over everything
So I'll let you go you go you go

Don't come back to me when you're crying
When you find out that he was two timing
Cause you told me that I was moving way too fast
But I thought nice guys finish last?

Don't show up and tell me your sorry
After you've been kissing somebody
Cause you told me that I was moving way too fast
But I thought nice guys finish last?

I've been way too calm
And I've been too kind
And you've been way too cold
Just wasting all my fucking time

Now it's too late call
And I've just realised
You're a shitty girl just looking for a shitty guy

You said you don't want me
You're better off with somebody
Who gets jealous
Over everything
So I'll let you go you go you go

Don't come back to me when you're crying
When you find out that he was two timing
Cause you told me that I was moving way too fast
But I thought nice guys finish last?

Don't show up and tell me you're sorry
After you've been kissing somebody
Cause you told me that I was moving way too fast
But I thought nice guys finish last?

Nice guys finish last
Nice guys finish last

Don't come back to me when you're crying
When you find out that he was two timing
Cause you told me that I was moving way too fast
But I thought nice guys finish last?

Don't come back to me when you're crying
When you find out that he was two timing
Cause you told me that I was moving way too fast
But I thought nice guys finish last?

Don't show up and tell me you're sorry
After you've been kissing somebody
Cause you told me that I was moving way too fast
But I thought nice guys finish last?
