You Left

Robert Grace

I'm out here losing my mind
Thinking it's normal
Losing control
All the distractions I've tried
Made everything harder
Things got dark yeah

So dumb, thought we were forever
Still numb since you're gone
But it's getting better
Sometimes I just wish I could feel it again
But I can't forget
You just wanna break me down but

I don't feel anything
So come on, tear me apart
A bullet in my heart
Won't hurt me like you did, no
You ain't so innocent
And I'm too fucked up to feel pain
Yeah I can walk through flames
I don't feel a fucking thing since
You left, you left
I don't feel a fucking thing

I was out chasing cheap highs
But it just made me low
Yeah didn't know all the times I was
Lying awake on my own
Just hoping you'd call
But you never called, no, no

So dumb, thought we were forever
Still numb since you're gone
But it's getting better
Sometimes I just wish I could feel it again
But I can't forget
You just wanna break me down but

I don't feel anything
So come on, tear me apart
A bullet in my heart
Won't hurt me like you did, no
You ain't so innocent
And I'm too fucked up to feel pain
I don't feel a fucking thing since
I don't feel a fucking thing

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
That you just wanna break me down but
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I'll never let you break me down 'cause

A bullet in my heart
You ain't so innocent

I don't feel anything
A bullet in my heart
Won't hurt me like you did, no
