Beware

Robert Wyatt

You might have a lot to say.
There might be a price to pay.
Just beware.

They might smile and nod their heads,
while they wish that you were dead.
Just beware.

Your friends might not be what they seem.
Take it from me,
If you're not careful
you might get hurt one last time.
It's just a warning,
beware.

Don't get caught off your guard.
Evil lurks in all our hearts.
Just beware.

You won't last very long,
even if you are strong.
Just beware.

Don't trust anyone.
They might be your enemy.
If you're not careful,
you might get hurt one last time.
It's just a warning,
beware,
beware,
beware.
