

(His Name) Brazil

Roberta Flack

Brown-eyed dream, You're the fire inside
Are you still waiting for me out on the sand?
Let the morning bird find us making love again
Count up the stars left in the sky
I'm going back one more time

Under a warm Rio night
We danced on the edge
We fell together
The love that was there in your eyes
Was all that you said, ooh
And my heart stood still
Oh, Brazil, oh, Brazil

I can't sleep 'til our hearts beat together
Out where the sun meets the sea
We'll dance baião, two bodies like butter
You movin' in me
Light up the stars in my eyes
I want you back one more time

Under a warm Rio night
We danced on the edge
We fell together
The love that was there in your eyes
Was all that you said, ooh
And my heart stood still
Oh, Brazil, oh, Brazil

Never saw a face as beautiful as you
Never had a love as wonderful as you

Count up the stars left in the sky
I'm going back one more time

Under a warm Rio night
We danced on the edge
We fell together
The love that was there in your eyes
Was all that you said, ooh
And my heart stood still
Oh, Brazil, oh, Brazil
Brazil, Brazil, Brazil
