

Love (Always Commands)

Roberta Flack

Love, one of a kind, something for you and I to share between us
Made of heaven sent by Venus; Love, moving through me, seeking A place with in my heart I'm sure of everyone is in and out of.

Love, older than sky, like every cloud that has a silver lining
, Love is new and
Ever shining, Love falls just like rain, Love is the only thing
I know that lasts
Through time and even after... that is LOVE.

Love, laughing and high, feeding the magic that I find within me, quicker than the Eye yet simply love warmer than rain, quiet as night but it's stormy in its passion
Ancient never out of fashion.

Love, always commands, it never obeys the heart that's bleeding badly, aching
Tears of breaking sadly, Love, one of a kind, love is the only thing I know
That lasts through time and even after than forever.

Love, reach out for love, not to be treated for a moment's pleasure, real love is the
Lasting treasure, Love, for certain, sure, Love is the only thing
I know that lasts
Through time and even after than forever.
