

Where I'll Find You

Roberta Flack

Like a light on the sheen
On a storm you came to me
You're my course
It's my own
I'm afraid it leads to you
To you and you alone
And I can't change it

I would lie if I said
That I was undrawn to you
Thou I have all I need
Something deep within me
Stares and tell me I must go
To where I'll find you

Life is bringing you to me
We don't understand
Than looking for answers
This is it
This is who I am

I don't know who you are
How am I to choose you?
Still you call from afar
And I know I can't refuse
I know I have to go to where I'll find you
