Robin Gibb

Concisely I'm begging you.
But you... think I'm not there,
Patently I'm waiting well, but for that you still there...
But I know that you're there..
I know you're still there

A-a-a-a-avalanche [x2]

You broke my heart
And let me on my own,
I would not mind, if only I have none
Avalanche
Why not yours, my broken heart... and grease my lonely life
Things not shame I laughed apart, that you on still my wife
But I know that you're there,
I know you're still there,

A-a-a-a-avalanche [x2]

You broke my heart and let me on my own,
I would not mind, if only I have none
Avalanche...
