Be Exalted

Robin Mark

Be exalted, Lord let Your name be exalted on high Hearts and voices, gathered in unity focus our eyes On Your glory, come in Your Spirit with power and might Let that power, flow through this nation and let there be light.

You are King of all kings There is no-one like You Why should darkness remain Where our God is proclaimed Come in Your power The gates of this hell At Jesus' name they will never prevail