Come Heal This Land

Robin Mark

Let the exile come, let the stranger come Let the weary come find rest all you homeless sons All you widowed ones, all you poor and dispossessed For a table waits in Your Father's house There the meek can come and eat There's a place of rest at Your Father's breast Where His mercy is complete

Does a cry ring out from a broken nation From a people who have been brought low Was pride in our hearts, did we grieve Your Spirit Have we blocked the ancient wells that flowed Here is our covenant prayer Who call upon Your name We humble ourselves before You We humble ourselves

Come heal this land, come heal this land Come heal this land, come heal this land

Do the tears of One who gave all things for us Do they fall from Heaven still because of us For we have tasted grace and we have known Your mercy But we have not shown this grace to men Here is our covenant prayer Who call upon Your name We humble ourselves before You We humble ourselves

May this land we love be a place of safety Be a light for all the nations of this earth May Your streams of love, may they flow here freely Here where every stranger finds a home Here is our covenant prayer Who call upon Your name We humble ourselves before You We humble ourselves
