

My Hope Is In The Lord

Robin Mark

My hope is in the Lord,
Who has renewed my strength,
When everything seems senseless,
My hope is still in Him
Who has made heaven and earth,
And things seen and unseen.
Whatever shade of passing day
My hope is still in Him.

My hope is in You Lord,
My hope is in You Lord,
My hope is in You Lord,
My hope is in You Lord.

For I know that my eyes shall see You,
In the latter days to come.
When You stand on this earth,
With my lips I will confess
That the hope of my heart is come,
That the hope of my heart is come.
