

I'll Be There

Robin Schulz

Circles
keep running in circles Feels like every dream you've ever had just slowly fades away Hopeless
some day feel so hopeless
Just another day
another struggle
'nother wind to chase

Yeah I get that sometimes life can bring you down
And you try to win the fight
But you don't know how

Whenever you're falling and you don't know where you're going
Even if your wings are broken
Soon enough you'll fly again
When everything's failing and your eyes just won't stop raining
Even if your fire's out then soon enough you'll burn again

You know in the ups and downs
I'll be there
When the lights go out
I'll be there
In the coldest hour
I'll be there for you
In the highs and lows
I'll be there
When you lose control
I'll be there
It'll be alright
Yeah I'll be there for you (I'll be there for you)

Donde
Te encuentres al borde
Y tocando fondo hacete amigo de la soledad Vive, intentá y sonríe es un paso a paso y tiempo pa dejar lo malo atrás Es soy conexión
Con vos mismo conel interior Trabajar en tu mejor versión y poner valor al corazón

and you don't know where you're going
Even if your wings are broken
Soon enough you'll fly again

You know in the ups and downs
I'll be there

I'll be there
In the coldest hour
I'll be there for you
I'll be there
I'll be there
It'll be alright
Yeah I'll be there for you

In the highs and lows
I'll be there
It'll be alright
I'll be there for you
