

In Your Arms

Robin Schulz

My heart was way too lonely, if you saw it closely, you'd see the scars

Oh yeah

But all the things you showed me make me feel so holy, that's what you are

And I feel it coming, you're in my, my mind, everything that we're doing

Feels right, oh I love the way that you're moving

You're my limelight, I don't wanna lose you right now

Lose you right now

Take me in your arms, take me in your arms

Don't let go, no, just hold me again

Take me in your arms, take me in your arms

'Cause you know I feel whole on your skin

Take me in your arms

Take me in your arms

Take me in your arms

You're taking all my feelings, wide awake and dreaming, I found it all

Oh yeah

I'm living in the moment, with you's where my home is, can't get enough

And I feel it coming, you're in my, my mind, everything that we're doing

Feels right, oh I love the way that you're moving

You're my limelight, I don't wanna lose you right now

Lose you right now

Take me in your arms, take me in your arms

Don't let go, no, just hold me again

Take me in your arms, take me in your arms

'Cause you know I feel whole on your skin

Take me in your arms

Take me in your arms

Take me in your arms, take me in your arms

Don't let go, no, just hold me again

Take me in your arms, take me in your arms

'Cause you know I feel whole on your skin
Take me in your arms
