

Sun Goes Down

Robin Schulz

Nothing's ever what we expect
But they keep asking where I go next
All we're chasing is the sunset
Got my mind on you
Doesn't matter where we are, are, are, are
Doesn't matter where we are, are, are
Doesn't matter, no

If there's a moment when it's perfect
We'll carve our names as the sun goes down, hey
As the sun goes down, hey
As the sun goes down
As the sun goes down
Doesn't matter where we are, are, are, are
Doesn't matter where we are, are, are
Doesn't matter, no

Nothing's ever what we expect
But they keep asking where I go next
All we're chasing is the sunset
Got my mind on you
Doesn't matter where we are, are, are, are
Doesn't matter where we are, are, are
Doesn't matter, no

If there's a moment when it's perfect
We'll carve our names as the sun goes down, hey
As the sun goes down, hey

You are so lonely now
You are so lonely now

As the sun goes down
