

Don't Lose Faith in Tomorrow

Robin Trower

If you lose faith in tomorrow
You give up on love today
Keep up a lie of what the future may bring
Hold on to what I say
Spending life without reason
Taking love with no return
From this fire comes good reason
For you to burn

Don't lose faith in tomorrow
Don't give up in any way
If we lose faith in tomorrow
Throw it all away
All away

There are no cities paved with gold
Not in this life anyway
Give up the search before you go too old
Check out the price you pay
But when the sky begins to darken
And you look into rain
Reliving precious moment
Without pain

Don't lose faith in tomorrow
Don't give up in any way
If we lose faith in tomorrow
We throw it all away
All away

But when the sky begins to darken
And you look into rain
Reliving precious moment
Without pain

Don't lose faith in tomorrow
Don't give up in any way
If we lose faith in tomorrow
We throw it all away
Throw it all away
