

I'll Be Moving On

Robin Trower

Guess I have to face it
I'm in a darker place
There was a time when the only light for me shone from your face
What was the promise that I believed
Can't dance around it
Maybe I should take my leave

The truth can be undone
Kept faith in you too long
I wish you well, but I'll be moving on

Did not see the danger of falling deep
What I thought was love's sweet road ain't nothing but a dead-end street

The truth can be undone
Kept faith in you too long
I wish you well, but I'll be moving, I'll be moving on

Could be the answer
Just turn my back
My future is not a "maybe"
It's a stone-cold, stone-cold fact

The truth can be undone
Kept faith in you too long
I wish you well, but I'll be moving, I'll be moving on

Yeah
I'll be moving on
Moving on
I'll be moving on
Yeah
I'll be moving
I'll be moving on
