

(I Would) Still Be Here For You

Robin Trower

Say what you want
I ain't ever gonna change my mind
Do what you want
I only wanna stay alive

And when you realise
What you've turned aside
And cry one thousand tears
I would still be here for you

Fly on the wind
Hide your face behind the clouds
But I won't give in
Your love I can't do without

If you think it possible
For you to walk away
And stay away for one thousand years
I would still be here for you

I would still be here
I would still be here
I would still be here
For you

And you realise what...
