

Passion

Robin Trower

Clear the stage, raise the curtain
Forget the costume, take me as I am
Let the spotlight burn my body
Whatever happens now, will suit my plan
That's the message, now I know you're watching me
Do you really wanna see?

I need to feel the passion
I need to feel the heat
I need to feel reaction
To the main in me

I'm the actor, I'm the writer
Win or lose, it's me who takes the blame
Open handed I stand before you
The time has come for me to fan the flame
Hear me out now, Am I reaching you at all?
Coz tonight I stand to fall

I need to feel the passion
I need to feel the heat
I need to feel reaction
To the main in me

Am I reaching you at all?
Coz tonight I stand to fall

I need to feel the passion
I need to feel the heat
I need to feel reaction
To the main in me
