

Precious Gift

Robin Trower

There's a light for someone
Let it shine, let it shine
Ship of gold which sails on
Yeah, make it end in light
How the time weighs heavy
Through the golden air
Keep a place in Heaven
Take this precious gift

Shattered dreams and broken hearts
Nothing bad can pass
Return it all to the past
To the past

Let the river wind on
To the sea, to the sea
No more wars to decide on
Yeah, wait for me
How the time weighs heavy
Through the golden air
Keep a place in Heaven
Take this precious gift
