Robin Trower

Honey, one sweet night
I gotta feeling, gonna put you right
Having a showdown
Head on the floor
Make believe, make it back for more

Do you want some more?
Do you need some more?
Do you need it baby?
Do you want some more?

Woman! Don't give me no lies
Look at the moon, shining in your eyes
Listen! You know it ain't right
For me to be lonely, on this sweet night

And I want some more
Yes I want some more
Yes I need it baby
Won't you give me some more?

Don't wanna lose you!
Don't wanna lose you!

Honey, there is no joy
If you will use me, like a whippin' toy

You should come to me, put it alive
We could be lovers, on such a night

And I want some more
Do you want some more
Do you need it baby
Can I give you some more?

Don't wanna lose you!
Don't wanna lose you!
-Hey!

Honey, one sweet night
I gotta feeling, gonna put you right
Having a showdown
Head on the floor
Make believe, make it back for more

Do you want some more?
Do you need some more?
Do you need it baby?
Can I give you some more?

Don't wanna lose you!
Don't wanna lose you!
