

Smile

Robin Trower

You had a hard life baby, and it tore you up inside Right from the start, they broke your heart, they were fooling with your pride
So hold on, baby hold on, you've been waiting all these years
There is a new day, there's a new day coming baby
So wipe away your tears and smile, smile, smile for me baby, smile, smile, smile
Smile, smile, smile for me baby, smile, smile, smile

You had a bad dream baby, it threw you a lie
Now your feeling sorry for yourself, you don't do it every time
Hold on, baby hold on, you've been waiting all these years
There is a new day, there's a new day coming baby yes, so wipe your tears and

Smile for me baby
Smile for me baby
Smile for me baby
Smile for me baby
Smile for me baby
Smile for me baby
Smile for me baby
Smile for me baby
Smile for me...
