

Take This Hurt Away

Robin Trower

Not inside this head
Would one heart beating
Shinning out the shame
Moment fleeting

It's all fair in love
See it then retreating
What would be enough
For a heart still beating

Take it away
Take this hurt away
Take this hurt away

All that went before
See the tears flowing
Pushed an open door
Without knowing

Take it away
Take this hurt away
Take this hurt away

Bring it to an end
So far from ever winning
Thoughts I can't defend
Nothing beginning

Take it away
Take this hurt away
Take this hurt away

Take it away
Take this hurt away
