

Take This River

Robin Trower

You believe that your heart of stone
Keeps you free - from pain
But his heart will draw you on
Like a moth to the flame

You will spread your wings again
And will feel - no sorrow
Mercy flows like falling rain
Not to lead, but to follow

Take this river - know this sign

From this mountain - climb

Is your life all silk and gold
Or do you search for treasure
Do the lies that you have sold
Really bring your pleasure

Take this river - know this sign
From this mountain climb
