

The Distance

Robin Trower

We walk the city skyline
Dance beneath the wide-eyed moon
Feeling what it is to shine
Full of innocence and youth

It's never been more clear
The distance between there and here

Always made a brave attempt
To plough my share of the land
The harvest that was heaven-sent
Cannot be passed from hand to hand

It's never been more clear
The distance between there and here

Gonna fly
Gonna run
To find what lies beyond the sun

From a child to full grown
Tried to influence my fate
Can't outweigh so much unknown
And affirmation comes too late

It's never been more clear
The distance between there and here

Gonna fly
Gonna run
