

Drunk

Robotaki

You only love me
When times are easy
But when things get harder
You don't complete me

And all I am asking
Is just give me something
Someone to hold on to
Someone to stay strong to

I'm scared, I'm scared of being left alone
But I know it's time, it's time to let it go

So don't tell me nothing
Cause you only love me when you're drunk
Cause you only love me when you're drunk
And baby, it's just not enough

And baby, it's just not enough

And baby, it's just not enough

(Just give me something)
I try to stay quiet
Quiet and censored
I don't want no problems
I'm not trying to stress you

But all I am asking now
Is just give me something
Someone to hold on to
Yeah I hope love can find you

I'm scared of facing all of this alone
But I know that I know, that there's nowhere else to go

So don't tell me nothing, no, don't tell me nothing
No, don't tell me nothing, no, don't tell me no no
Don't tell me nothing
Cause you only love me when you're drunk
Cause you only love me when you're drunk
And baby, it's just not enough

And baby, it's just not enough

And baby, it's just not eno...
And baby, it's just not enough

You only love me when you're drunk, when you're drunk
Not enough
Cause you only love me when you're drunk
When you're drunk
