

Ghostboy

Robotaki

I swear I fell in love with a ghost boy
I know cause I just see him when we under the sheet
I wish the sky could turn back to black now
Can't wait another day...

Hold my hand, my feet don't need the ground
Don't let me go, I won't make a sound
Go through my walls, I'm your haunted house
Don't need no keys, boy, just use your mouth
Undress my soul, I'm your naked truth
When the moon is ripe, it's just me and you
All of my friends don't think that you exist
I see through their eyes that they're just jealous

I swear I fell in love with a ghost boy
I know cause I just see him when we under the sheet
I wish the sky could turn back to black now
Can't wait another day to have him with me
I swear I fell in love with a ghost boy
I know cause I just see him when we under the sheet
I wish the sky could turn back to black now
Can't wait another day to have him with me

I remind you of someone you
Left behind to some degree
But I imagine that you're mine
I shut my eyes so I can't see

Hold my hand, my feet don't need the ground
Don't let me go, I won't make a sound
Go through my walls, I'm your haunted house
Don't need no keys, boy, just use your mouth
Undress my soul, I'm your naked truth
When the moon is ripe, it's just me and you
All of my friends don't think that you exist
I see through their eyes that they're just jealous

I swear I fell in love with a ghost boy...
Under the sheet...
Ghost boy...
To have him with me...
Ghost boy...
Under the sheet...
Ghost boy...

I swear I fell in love with a ghost boy
I know cause I just see him when we under the sheet
I wish the sky could turn back to black now
Can't wait another day...
