

Lady & the Flies

Robots in Disguise

All you suitors lining up to meet her
Once it's done your wings fall and then you're gone
All you suitors dreaming to adore her
Tangle up in her threads and then she's come

If you don't suit her
Don't suit her
She's a killer
It's a signal of your doom
Don't suit her, you're not fruit to her
She takes a lover and this time you're the guy

For one night you jazz, hover, are around her

They zzz about her
Dance all around her
Line up about her
Lady and the flies

All your dreams of green and blue and silver
Glitzy in the nightlife, moving closer
Show her all your diamonds, hearts, and aces
Sparkling for a moment, shining brighter

If you don't suit her, don't pursue her
She's a killer
It's a signal of your doom
Don't suit her, you're not fruit to her
You're the loser and this time you should fly

They zzz about her
Dance all around her
Line up about her
Lady and the flies

It is an honour to wizz bout and jump up up on her
A flight above love oh horror horror
It's time to fly to die
Goodbye goodbye goodbye!
