When she said, "Don't waste your words, they're just lies," I cried she was deaf And she worked on my face until breaking my eyes Then said, "What else you got left?" It was then that I got up to leave But she said, "Don't forget Everybody must give something back For something they get." I stood there and hummed I tapped on her drum and asked her how come And she buttoned her boot And straightened her suit Then she said, "Don't get cute." So I forced my hands in my pockets And felt with my thumbs And gallantly handed her My very last piece of gum She threw me outside I stood in the dirt where ev'ryone walked And after finding I'd Forgotten my shirt I went back and knocked. I waited in the hallway, she went to get it And I tried to make sense Out of that picture of you in your wheelchair That leaned up against... Her Jamaican rum And when she did come, I asked her for some She said, "No, dear." I said, "Your words aren't clear You'd better spit out your gum." She screamed till her face got so red Then she fell on the floor And I covered her up and then Thought I'd go look through her drawer And, when I was through I filled up my shoe And brought it to you And you, you took me in You loved me then You didn't waste time And I, I never took much I never asked for your crutch Now don't ask for mine
