

My Bedroom

Robyn Ottolini

He said
Doll won't you make it a double
I'd know that voice anywhere
I'd know that voice anywhere
I've heard
He's dated so many models
He looks like he's trouble and
Oh god, I'm in trouble

He takes my hand
I'm feeling sparks again
Next second it's three am
I like him more than just a friend
He walks me home and says can I come in Never looked so delicate
I just can't lose the magic yet

In the walls of my bedroom
That's where I'm safe
I've got my hands on the playlist
I'm everyone's favourite
In the walls of my bedroom
Untouched by him
So I know if we don't make it
I won't associate him with the walls of my bedroom

Last time I opened my fortress
Thought it was imperative
The next step in the narrative
But when they left I had to paint all the walls
Still burning candles to scare off all of the ghosts in the halls
We're at his place and now we're three weeks in
I'm falling hard but if it ends
At least there's no reminders of him

In the walls of my bedroom
That's where I'm safe
I've got my hands on the playlist
I'm everyone's favourite
In the walls of my bedroom
Untouched by him
So I know if we don't make it
I won't associate him with the walls of my bedroom

Won't let you in
Won't let you into my bedroom
Won't let you in
Into the walls of my bedroom
Won't let you in
Won't let you into my bedroom

Maybe I'll stay here in the walls of my room
Hold on to dreams instead of making them true
I want control guess I just don't wanna lose
But I'll take the risk one day if I know I trust this