

Say It

Robyn Ottolini

You look so hot in an oversized tee
I love how funny you get when you drink
People like you 'cause they like how you think
And I think, you're all that I need
Can't help but smile when you sing in the car
I love the way that you love too hard
Don't you dare ever change who you are
'Cause you've come so far

Yeah, my therapist said to make a list
Of what I never heard when I put him first

I hate that he messed up my head
When I could've used a compliment
So I take the shit I wish he'd said and
Say it to myself, I say it to myself instead

Don't you worry, it's okay to cry
No matter what, I'll be on your side
I know the world gets you down sometimes
But I, I love the way you shine

Ain't it crazy how I was missing out
Forgot that who I was, was always enough

I hate that he messed up my head
When I could've used a compliment
So I take the shit I wish he'd said and
Say it to myself, I say it to myself instead

He never said I'm pretty
He never said I'm sweet
Honestly, maybe I never told him just what I need
But you best believe
I'm gonna say it to me
I'm gonna say it to me

I hate that he messed up my head
When I could've used a compliment
So I take the shit I wish he'd said and
Say it to myself, I say it to myself
Oh, I hate that he messed up my head
When I could've used a compliment
So I take the shit I wish he'd said and
Say it to myself, I say it to myself instead
