

Light Up

Robyn

I was so insecure
Never seen this light before
I was looking at you like a mirror
All I could make of the glitter was my mistakes
I didn't come here to save no one
I'm just trying to be your girl
I lost you but I want to be better
Wanna face up to my issues for real

So baby, light up
Light up the way to your heart
One flash is enough to keep me out of the dark
Hey, hey
I know I let you down
But my eyes are open now
So baby, light up
Light up
Light up the way to your heart

Beam your light through the glass
Send a beacon, make it smash
Until everything's real but it's see-through Baby, I just want to see you
Lose yourself in a trance
I don't want to change a thing about you
I just want to be the one that you choose when my mind drifts off, thinking
'bout the future
And technicolour breaks the black and white illusion

So baby, light up
Light up the way to your heart
One flash is enough to keep me out of the dark
Hey, hey
I know I let you down
But my eyes are open now
So baby, light up (Light up)
Light up the way to your heart (Heels so high, girl, damn, it's giving 6-7-8 death drop)

Baby, light up (Baby)
Ba-baby
Light
Light
Light up
The way to your heart
Baby
Ba-baby
Light up
Ba-baby, light
Lighten
Light up
Baby

So baby, light up

So baby, light up

Light up the way to your heart (Heels so high, girl, damn, it's giving 6-7-8 death drop)

Baby, light up (Heels so high, girl, damn, it's giving 6-7-8 death drop, drop, drop)

H-H-Heels so high, girl, damn, it's giving 6-7-8 death drop
