Psycho

Just woke up but it's not a dream you're still and I'm freaking don't wanna know 'bout your plans don't know how this shit began

Psycho

You say you love me
I bite my lip
But inside I am screaming
This is it I'm about to flip You're staying But I wish you were leaving

You're P-S-Y-C-H-O
I thought that you ought to know why can't you just let me be
You're turning psycho on me
You better rethink your life
I'll never be your wife
I feel just like deadly
You're turning psycho on me

Whoa baby
no baby
don't wanna know baby
leave baby
me baby
You're turning psycho on me

You call my house you ask my friends
you wanna know how I'm doing Real cute stuff but I call the bluff
You bitter you don't think I know it So wipe the tears out of your eyes The guilt trip thing isn't working get your tongue out of my mouth It's more than just a little disturbing

You're P-S-Y-C-H-O
You're turning psycho on me
You better rethink your life

Whoa baby
no baby
me baby

crazy

Whoa baby
no baby
leave baby
me baby
You're turining psycho on me

Don't come back here no more knocking on my door
I don't want you around Just leave me alone

Whoa baby
no baby
me baby
