

If Only With You

Rocco

You kissed me then you had to leave
No I can't stop thinking of you, of you
You left behind your favorite ring
I guess I have to give it to you soon, to you soon

Now I am waiting patiently like a puppet on a string
You do as you will and I won't mind
I see you in everything, want a house up on the hill
Is that too much to ask, girl, is it right?
If only with you
If only with you
If only with you
If only with you, with you

We met up in a parking lot
Listening to her silent thoughts
With open arms you take me as a fool
You said you have somewhere to go
I wonder if she even knows
I like it when I have something to prove

Now I am waiting patiently like a puppet on a string
You do as you will, and I won't mind
I see you in everything, want a house up on the hill
Is that too much to ask, girl, is it right?
If only with you
If only with you
If only with you
If only with you, with you
If only with you

You held my hand
The lights turned down low
I didn't say much, 'cause you had to go
I'm here where I stand, where the flowers grow

If only you knew
If only with you
If only with you
If only with you, with you
If only with you
