

spin you round

Rocco

We'll take our time as we watch the stars collide
I scotch a bit closer
Where my hand then moves over to yours
Oh, but every time we have to say goodbye
My heart cries a little for you
So how about you stay until 2:00?

So I could spin you 'round
Take my hand until the sun goes down
Hold me close so I can love you now
How 'bout we all just forget? (Oh)
All of our obligations, I'd prefer stupid conversations
As long as it's with you, babe
As long as I'm with you, babe (oh-oh)

She said, "Pretty boy, pretty boy, you got me acting up"
I said, "Pretty girl, pretty girl, I won't ask too much
'Cause I'd only ask you politely if you'd like to dance
'Cause my heart is all yours to break
Oh, so why don't you come on over?"

So I could spin you 'round
Take my hand until the sun goes down
Hold me close so I can love you now
How 'bout we all just forget? (Oh)
All of our obligations
I'd prefer stupid conversations
As long as it's with you, babe
As long as I'm with you, babe (oh-oh)
