All Wired Up

Roch Voisine

This song's for all the bad boys listening tonight
I know a bad boy when I see one
'Cause I see one in my mirror every morning
When I shave
Bad boys love women
To love women is fine
But when you love women too much
They're gonna get you
Well she's got eyes
That burn her way inside
She's got a body for sin
I'll say it again
When she's hot
There's nowhere that I can hide
When she finds me down the line
I say yes every time
'Cause she's mine
And heaven knows if I will ever survive
Yes she's mine
Can't you see the light?
Can't you read my mind?
'Cause I'm all wired up
Driven to the borderline
Can't you see she's driving me to my knees
She does it to me every time
'Cause I'm all wired up
I'm dying but I'm feeling fine
You know the girl is pretty hard to believe
But I love it 'cause the girl is wild, wild, wild
When she undresses to the moon
The lights down low
I can feel it coming round
And it won't let me go
This feeling that stings and burns inside
Will stop the run of time
And arouse my desire
'Cause she's mine
God only knows if I will make it this time
'Cause she's mine
Can't you feel the fire?
Can't you read my mind, my mind, my mind?
'Cause I'm all wired up
Driven to the borderline
Can't you see she's driving me to my knees
She does it to me every time
'Cause I'm all wired up
I'm dying but I'm feeling fine
But I love her 'cause the girl is wild, wild, wild!!!
'Cause I'm all wired up
Driven to the borderline
Can't you see she's driving me to my knees
She does it to me every time
'Cause I'm all wired up
I'm dying but I'm feeling fine
Can't you see she's driving me crazy
Driving me crazy

Driving me crazy
