

Blah Blah Blah

Rockapella

It started out real sweet; I worshipped at your feet
Swore that you had hung the moon
But after we'd begun, I wasn't having fun
I fear we may have peaked too soon

Why you wanna go and do me like you do
Why you wanna beat me blue

When you talk all I hear is Blah Blah Blah
Baby you got nothin to say
You're makin sound good and loud now, I can't make it out
Your lips are workin fine, but when you talk---blah blah

I hear you talkin, you say Blah, blah, blah, blah
I hear you talkin, you say Blah, blah, blah, blah

My hopes were ridin high--I ain't a picky guy
And you appeared to be a dream
Unhappily instead, you pounded on my head
You certainly ain't what you seem

Why you wanna go and do me like you do
Why you wanna beat me blue

When you talk all I hear is Blah Blah Blah
Baby you got nothin to say
You're makin sounds good and loud now, I can't make it out
Your lips are workin fine, but when you talk---blah blah

When you talk all I hear is Blah Blah Blah
Baby you got nothin to say
You're makin sounds good and loud now, I can't make it out
Your lips are workin fine, but when you talk

There was a time when all the moons were pink with apricotton skies
There was a time when all the world would think we held the reasons why

And still I'm back each day; perhaps we'll find a way
Maybe we'll see eye to eye--maybe you'll start thinkin my way
But then I hear the drone of your naggin monotone
I'd rather go out back and die

Why you wanna go and do me like you do
Why you wanna beat me blue

When you talk all I hear is Blah Blah Blah
Baby you got nothin to say
You're makin sounds good & loud now, I can't make it out
Your lips are workin fine, but when you talk---blah blah

When you talk all I hear is Blah Blah Blah
Baby you got nothin to say
You're makin sounds good and loud now, I can't make it out
Your lips are workin fine, but when you talk---blah blah
(repeat)

Talkin, blah, blah

Baby you got nothin to say, I can't make it
Blah, Blah, the way you talk
Blah, blah, talkin blah, blah
Baby you got nuthin to say
