

Flamingo Sing

Rockapella

Ooh, Sing flamingo, flamingo...

Sing flamingo, sing for the sun,
Don't waste your worry why ain't no one listenin to your heart
Sing flamingo, part these clouds, see some heaven, flap your wings and fly

Born free, loves her family, but something just ain't right Likes pink, wears it nattily, something more is in her sight

She hears such melody, flowin through the breeze (ooh the jasmine breeze)
She swimmin in reverie,
One leg on the ground, one heart in the clouds

Chorus

Blue sky, perfect Saturday, maybe now's the time
She's shy, what'll Daddy say?
Flamingos can be so unkind
(Daddy gives it to her straight)
"I know no birds have tried,
But you've got your song that grows inside."

Chorus

Fly flamingo
Cross the land go, past the mango sun flamingo
Send me back a palm tree post card
Go bird, don't matter what you heard
Don't worry why, You gotta fly
Make your heaven

Chorus

Fly flamingo, fly flamingo
